RE: Paulette Salmons, Administrator, etc. v. Summit View of Lake City, LLC
Anderson County Circuit Court; Civil Action No.: B5LA0001

Loring E. Justice, Esq.
LORING JUSTICE, P.L.L.C.
11911 Kingston Pike, Suite 201
Knoxville, TN 37934

Dear Loring:

As you suggested, I have issued a subpoena for the production of certain documents from In Re Loring E. Justice, U.S. District Court, Civil Action No. 1:11-mc-3.

As I represented to Judge Elledge at the hearing on January 20, 2017, I understand you want to get guidance from the U.S. District Court before producing these specific documents because they were filed under seal. I agree this is appropriate.

In addition, I agree to take these documents subject to a protective order which prevents me from using these documents outside the litigation in Anderson County Circuit Court. Although I do not know this, I suspect these documents were filed under seal because they reference "Mr. K." in Judge Collier's opinion. I understand Mr. K. is deceased, so it may be unnecessary to protect Mr. K. now.

I sent the subpoena to the Anderson County Circuit Court Clerk to issue. Presumably, the Sheriff will serve the subpoena shortly. I copied the U.S. District Court Clerk so the Court knows what is happening.

Very truly yours,

HUNTER, SMITH & DAVIS, LLP
